

What are your child's favorite types of games to play?

Playing
abc
games

Playing
games
with his/her stuffed animals

Putting
together
puzzles

Playing
catch with a ball

Playing
musical chairs or singing
songs

Playing tag
and hide
and seek

Playing
games where he/she finds what doesn't belong in a picture

If your child could do anything right now, what would he or she most like to do?

Be able to talk to animals

Be a famous sport star or dancer

Help a friend with something really hard

Figure out how to make a rocket go to another planet

Write a book that everybody wants to read

Make the most beautiful picture in the world

Play a musical instrument really well

If your child could go anywhere right now, where would he or she go?

To an art fair to create things and look at art.

To the library to read books

To a friend's house to have a party

To a playground to play on the equipment

To the zoo to see animals

To the factory to see how things get made

To a concert to listen to music

If your child were allowed to be really silly, what would he or she do?

Bring a Zebra home

Play a giant game of hide and seek

Ride his/her bike through a store

Fill the house with 5 of everything

Have someone read to him/her the whole day and night

Paint all the walls in the house

Beat a drum & have a musical parade

JUMP START
ADVANCED

What types of stories does your child like to read?

Stories with lots of pictures

Stories where he/she learns new words

Stories of people he/she likes

Mystery stories

Musical books

Stories about animals

Stories with people doing lots of things

Imagine your child could make any kind of machine, what would he or she make?

A machine
that can read all the stories in the world

A machine
that plays
all the songs in the world

A machine
that makes him/her
stronger
and faster

A machine
that cleans up the dirty
air and litter
left behind

A machine
that can change the color of anything in the world

A machine
that can
build anything
he/she wants

A machine
that lets him/her
talk with friends
anytime

Who does your child most like to have as a friend?

Someone who always has ideas on stuff to do

Someone who likes to explore outdoors

Someone who likes to draw or paint

Someone who likes to play sports

Someone who is nice

Someone who likes to pretend and make up stories

Someone who likes to sing

